

Applied Research and Innovation Award

The Medal shall be awarded annually to a full member (MRACI and above) of the RACI who, in the opinion of the Board of the RACI has contributed significantly towards the development of, or innovation through, applied research, or in industrial fields. This contribution shall be judged on evidence submitted to the adjudicating panel.

This award requires nomination by a senior RACI member. The nominated candidate is required to be a current member for a minimum of 3 years. The award is judged on the candidate's work covering the last 10 years or equivalent relative to opportunity. The work to be considered for the award should include a substantial contribution made within Australia.

Nominations open 1 and close 12 June 2022. The nomination document requirement is a current CV, a summary/synopsis of research outcomes and impact and four referee email and telephone contacts.

Please email a single PDF document to awards@raci.org.au (Subject: Applied Research Award) no later than 12 June 2022. Receipt will be acknowledged by return email.

After the closing date, no further nominations for the award shall be accepted. If in the opinion of the Board there is no candidate who has sufficient merit, the Board may refrain from making an award.
